

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 29. 1743.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

Mantua, September 18.

We expect here To-morrow, or the Day after, 600 Men from Tyrol, which will be followed by a much more considerable Body of Troops. Field-Marshal Traun having deliver'd up the Army to Prince Lobkowitz, set out soon after for Ostingia, from whence he intends to go to Padua, in order to make use of the Baths for the Recovery of his Health.

The Loss of this Officer is much regretted, especially by the Poor, to whom he daily gave very large Alms. Prince Lobkowitz has sent the Prince, his Son, to Turin, to make his Compliments to his Sardinian Majesty; we expect him back by the 22d of this Month, and then it will be known, whether our Army will undertake any Thing further this Year, or not. An Express is arrived this Moment, with the surprizing News, that the Spanish Army, under the Command of the Count de Gages, was in full March, and that the Van-Guard is already arrived at Lugo.

From the Queich, September 23.

Yesterday, about Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, the Army of M. Noailles quitted, with great Precipitation, his strong Lines between Landau and Germsersheim, and retired towards those of Weissenbourg. As yet we are absolutely ignorant of the Cause of this Retreat, neither is it at all certain, whether his Army will remain for any Time where they are posted at present, or continue their Retreat farther into Alsace. The Austrian Hussars enter'd the French Camp, immediately after they abandon'd it; and Yesterday in the Afternoon they plunder'd the Villages of Nulsdorff and Isau, in the District of Landau; in the Evening they carried off several of the Workmen that had been employ'd in the Citadel. Colonel Mentzel keeps the City of Landau block'd up; but it is not certain, as yet, whether the Allies will besiege it, or not; but we are well assured, that they cannot attack it at a more proper Season, since the Garison is very weak, and their Magazines almost empty, the Army having been supply'd from them for Three Weeks.

Frankfort, September 29. Prince William of Hesse-Cassel returned hither the Day before Yesterday, from Aix la Chapelle. We are assured, that the Army of the Allies quitted their Camp in the Neighbourhood of Worms, on the 25th, and on the 27th arrived in the Neighbourhood of Spire. We cannot, with any Certainty, affirm what their Design may be, but, according to common Report, they intend to force the French to Battle, the Loss of which, will be attended with that of Alsace. M. Noailles is at present encamp'd very advantageously. His Head Quarters are at Cronweissenbourg; his Right reaches to Lutetbourg, and his Left to Spitzberg. He has only a few Squadrons of Cavalry without his Lines, to protect, as long as they can, the Neighbouring Villages. The Cause of this Retreat remains an absolute Secret; but it is well enough known, that Col. Mentzel came up with the French in their Retreat, killed about 20 Dragoons, and made 40 Prisoners. The same enterprising Officer attempted, lately, to throw some red hot Bullets, by the help of his new invented Machines, into the Magazines of Forage at Landau; but by a very warm Fire from the Place, he was oblig'd to desist. The Count de Lautrec has again assur'd his Imperial Majesty, that the most Christian King will never lay down his Arms, till he shall be restored to his Hereditary Dominions, and has received a proper Satisfaction for his Pretensions on the Austrian Succession.

Berlin, September 28. His Majesty returned to Potsdam, as was expected, on the 25th, attended by several General Officers, and other Persons of Distinction. It is very certain, that his Majesty not only conser'd with Count Seckendorff, but also took a View of the Imperial Army, with which he was very well pleas'd. We are assur'd, that, notwithstanding all the Reports that have been spread, it consists of at least 17,000 Men, and is in excellent Condition. There are Councils of State, and of War, held here almost every Day. Yesterday the French Minister dispatch'd his Valet de Chambre to Paris, with Letters of great Importance; and this Morning he received an Express from his Court, upon which he immediately went to pay his Respects to the King.

Extra from the Paris Alaman.

Paris, October 4. The Princes who are at present in the Army, are expected from thence by the 20th of next Month.

The Marquis de Rennepont, who carried off the Garison which had taken Possession of the Abbey of St. Hubert, has had Orders to return thither, in order to carry off the Treasure likewise, which is said to amount to near 5,000,000 of Livres; which, it is suspected, will otherwise fall into the Hands of the Hussars.

This Stroke of French Policy resembles that of some of our Highwaymen, who have profess'd they have taken People's Money, merely to prevent their being robbed.

The Duke d'Harcourt, who covers Thionville with a Body of 12, or 15,000 Men, is throwing up very strong Retrenchments, in order to put our Frontiers, on the Side of Luxembourg, out of Danger from the Courses of the Enemy.

The Court has sent Orders to Toulon for careening all the Men of War that are either in the Port, or in the Road.

We look upon it as certain, that the Army of the Allies upon the Rhine are about to go into Winter Quarters, but as yet we do not know where they propose to take them.

The Courier is not arrived, as we expected, with the Confirmation of Count Maurice of Saxony's having pass'd the Rhine with 25,000 Men; so that we begin to doubt the Truth of that Piece of News, as well as of another that follow'd it, which was, that this General, after passing the River, had attack'd a Body of about 15,000 Austrians, and entirely defeated them.

We found it impracticable to establish Magazines at Haguenau, on Account of the Difficulties that were not foreseen till they were felt. This occasioned the suspending the March of the best Part of the Army of the M. Noailles, who has left 20 Battalions, and four Squadrons, on that Road, under the Command of the Count de Saxe; the Marshal himself having set out on the 24th, in order to visit Fort-Lewis, and several other Posts.

According to several Letters from the Army of M. Coigny, the Enemy makes no further Motions towards penetrating into Alsace; and even their Cannon are now absolutely silent. Prince Charles held, on the 26th, a great Council, to which all the old Officers were invited. The Point in Debate was, Whether they should attempt the Passage of the Rhine, or not? and after mature Deliberation, Prince Charles found himself alone in the Opinion of its being practicable; his Highness thereupon dispatch'd a Courier to Vienna, in order to carry the Queen the Resolution taken in that Council.

The Post which the Marquis de Balincourt occupies near Rhinewiller, has been so incommoded by the Cannon and Bombs of the Enemy, that this General has found himself under a Necessity of throwing up Retrenchments, to cover his Troops from so warm a Fire.

It appears from the Works Prince Charles has caus'd to be thrown up in the Island of Rhinmarck, that he intends to keep Possession of it all the Winter.

Our Army is reinforc'd every Day, so that it is, at present, at least 80,000 strong; we also continue to fortify our Intrenchments, which are now in so good a Condition, that we should not be under any Apprehensions, if Prince Charles had another Army to support him, as numerous as his own.

Actions 2082.

L O N D O N.

The Duke de Harcourt sent lately to the Abbey of St. Hubert a Detachment of 500 Horse and Dragoons, who not only carried away the Treasure of the Abbey, but the Archives also, and three of the Monks.

The Sardinian Ambassador at the Court of France, has been lately treated in such a manner, that he has written to the King, his Master, to desire that he may be recall'd.

According to private Letters from Dauphine, Things are in much the same Condition there as they were six Weeks ago; and the Season being so far advanced, it is much doubted whether the French and Spaniards will attempt any Thing of Consequence.

Extra of a Private Letter from Edinburgh, dated September 17, 1743.

On the 8th of August last died at Madrid, the Rev. Father William Clerk, aged 88 Years, Confessor for about 30 Years to the present King of Spain. His Father was Mr. William Clerk, one of the Faculty of Advocates in Scotland, and who was nominated a Senator of the College of Justice, but died before his Commission was recorded. This Gentleman had also another Son, Alexander, who was Confessor to the late Great Duke of Tuscany, and was commonly design'd Father Cosmo Clerk; also a Daughter, Isabel, married to Major Peter Gordon, who died Governor of Pennsylvania. This William, who died at Madrid, was bred a Writer in Edinburgh, with Mr. Hardy, Writer to the Signet, at the Desire of Sir Mark Carle, of Cockpen; his Uncle; but going abroad, went into Holy Orders.

Yesterday his Excellency James Glenn, Esq; Governor of South Carolina, set out from his House in Delahay Street, Westminster, for Portsmouth, in order to embark on board one of his Majesty's Men of War, appointed Convoys to the Merchant Ships bound to the West Indies, to take Possession of his said Government.

Next Thursday begins the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster.

The Merchants of this City have, at their own Expence, fitted out six Privateers; one of which is the St. Joseph, the Spanish Prize, (now call'd the Fame) carries 52 Guns, and 350 Men.

And the other five, the least of which mounts 20 Guns, now lying in the River, will speedily sail.

The Lords of the Admiralty have granted such strong Protections, that it is out of the Power of any Man of War to impress any of their Men.

The Gloucester Man of War, a 50 Gun Ship, lately rebuilt, will speedily be launched, and soon after put into Commission.

Yesterday in the Afternoon a Fire broke out in a Cyder Warehouse in Brickhill Lane, near the Three Cranes; which began in the upper Part of the House, occasion'd by the boiling over of a Pitch Pot, and burnt the Top thereof; but by the timely Assistance of the Firemen, with great Difficulty, it was soon extinguish'd, without doing any great Damage.

Yesterday died of the Strangury, Mr. William Pepys, an eminent and wealthy Banker in Lombard-street.

The same Day Anne Neale was committed to Newgate by Mr. Alderman Marshall, for stealing in the Shop of Mr. Edward Bennett, on London Bridge, three Gold Rings, value 3 l. and upwards.

The State Lottery Office at Charing Cross, directly behind the King on Horseback, kept by Mr. Wilson, having, in all past Lotteries, been esteemed the most Correct, as well as Fortunate, occasions, at this Time a very great Demand for the Tickets, and more especially for the Shares. Adventurers in general chuse to have the Numbers of their Tickets enter'd in his Register-Book, even tho' they may happen to be purchas'd at another Place.

P. S. No. 22,883, a Prize of 10,000 l. and No. 51,447, a Prize of 5000 l. were there Register'd, &c. last Lottery, being larger than has been transacted at any other Office now in being.

The only true Specifick Chymical LIQUOR,
For Dissolving and bringing away the Stone, whether in the Kidneys, Ureters or Bladder; and for instantly curing the Strangury, and all Heat, Pain, Stopping, or Difficulty in making Water.

THE very first Dose of it gives perfect

Ease in a Moment, even in the most racking Stone of either STONE or GRAVEL, and at once entirely frees the Patient from the STRANGURY, and all Heat, Pain and Stopping of Urine; it dilates the Ureters, makes them slippery, and the Crumbings of large Stones, together with Sand and Gravel, may pass freely from the Reins, and be voided with Urine without Pain; effectually cleanses the Kidneys, Bladder, and all Urinary Passages from gritty calculeous Matter; heals all internal Excoriations or Soreness of the Parts, directly takes off all Pain in the Back, and those Pains sometimes like the Cholick, and may be depended upon to dissolve large Stones, so as infallibly to cure that most miserable Distemper.

It gives such sudden and unspeakable Relief, that whoever takes but one Dose of it, will be thoroughly convinced of its surpassing Efficacy, which many Hundreds have happily experienced to their infinite Satisfaction.

It is such an agreeable Diuretick and powerful Dissolvent, that it infallibly prevents the Stone in those who are troubled with Gravel only; and for the perfect Cure of either Stone or Gravel, and all Disorders of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, occasioned thereby, is the only true Specifick Remedy that can be surely and safely rely'd upon, as it gives instant Ease as soon as taken, (even when nothing else will) and infallibly accomplishes a perfect Cure without the least Trouble, being pleasant to the Palate, agreeable to the Stomach, and not hurting the whole Body. It is to be had only of the Gentlewoman at the Sign of the Crown, over-against the Church in Coleman street, near Cheap-side, London; at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, seal'd up with Printed Directions at large.

This Day is Published,

The Seventh Edition, (wherein is inserted a Method of instantly curing the most torturing Fits of the Cramp without Trouble, or the taking or using any Medicines whatever) with some very material Additions, of

A Treatise of the Diseases of the Head,

Brain, and Nerves, more especially of the Palsy, Apoplexy, Lethargy, Epilepsy, Convulsions, Cramp, Tremor, Vertigo, Megrim, inveterate Head-ach, &c. with Directions for their thorough Cure, and how these and many other deplorable Nervous Distempers may be assuredly prevented, as well as certainly cur'd, and consequently many Lives saved by the Medicines therein, in English, prescribed, without the least Reserve. To which is subjoined,

A Discourse of MELANCHOLY in Men, and VARIETY in Women; explicating the whole Train of Symptoms, various Degrees, and real Cause of those wretched Maladies; and discovering a short and most certain Method of Cure, by the use of easy Remedies therein also candidly prescribed, and which Persons of either Sex, who are unhappily affected with those pernicious Distempers in a short time, without any Fatigue or Disorder. By a Physician.

London, printed and sold by the Author's Appointment, only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Haymarket in the Minories. Price bound 2s.
